

NEWS AND VIEWS OF PERSONS FIGURING LARGE IN THE WORLD OF SPORT AND ENTERTAINMENT

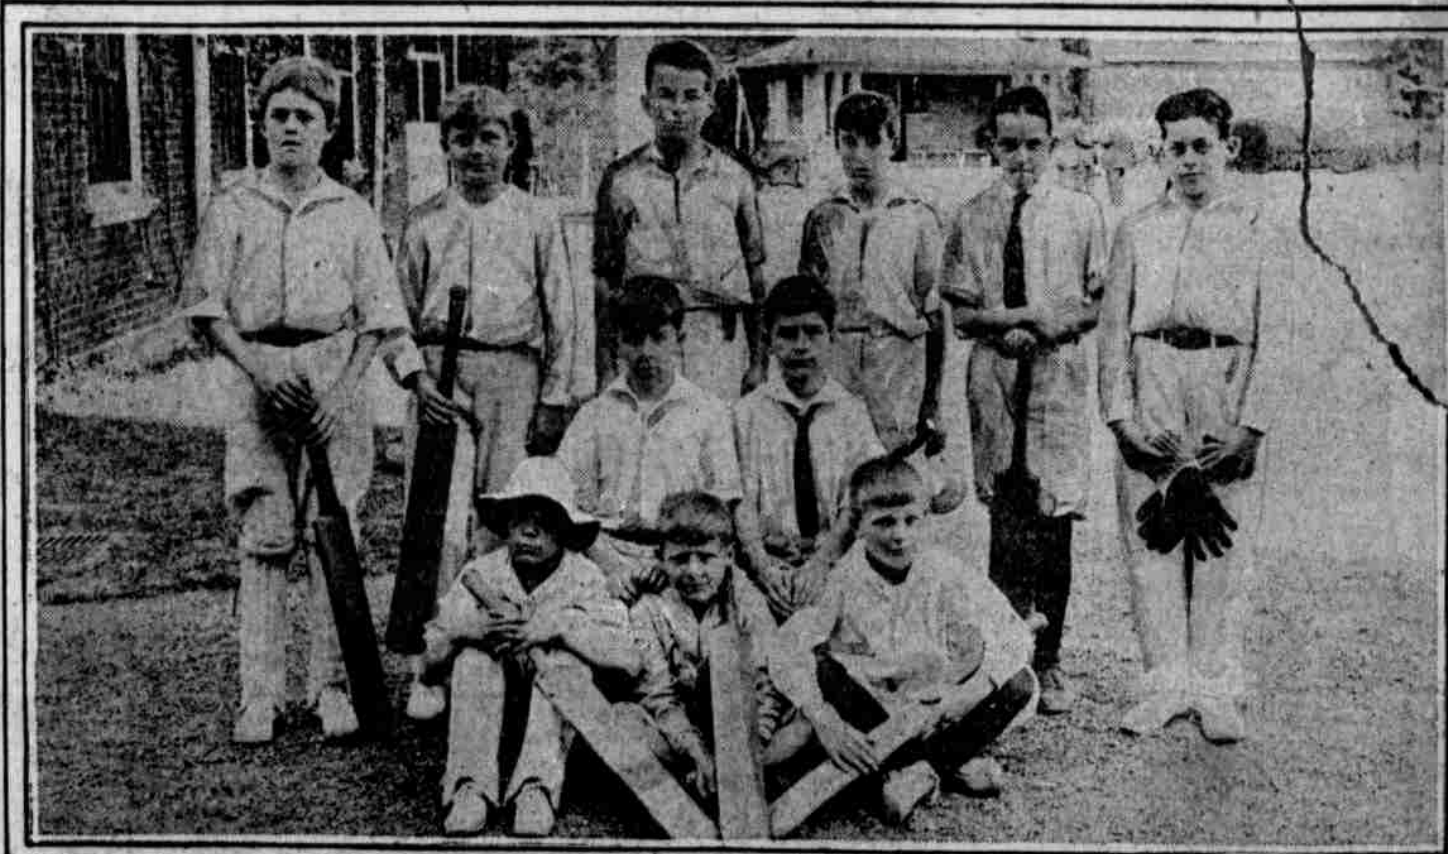

PHILLIES' PITCHERS WHO ARE ELIGIBLE TO PARTICIPATE IN THE WORLD'S SERIES IF MORAN'S HUSTLERS WIN THE NATIONAL LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP
The hurlers who may be called upon to stave off the Red Sox batters if the Phillies get into the world's series are, from left to right: McQuillen, Demaree, Alexander, Rixey, Oeschger, Mayer, Chalmers, Kantlehner, Tincup, Baumgartner and Bender.

STILL PLAYS TENNIS AT 60
George Kerr, for eleven years world's champion professional tennis player, is now instructing wielders of the racquet at the Philadelphia Cricket Club.

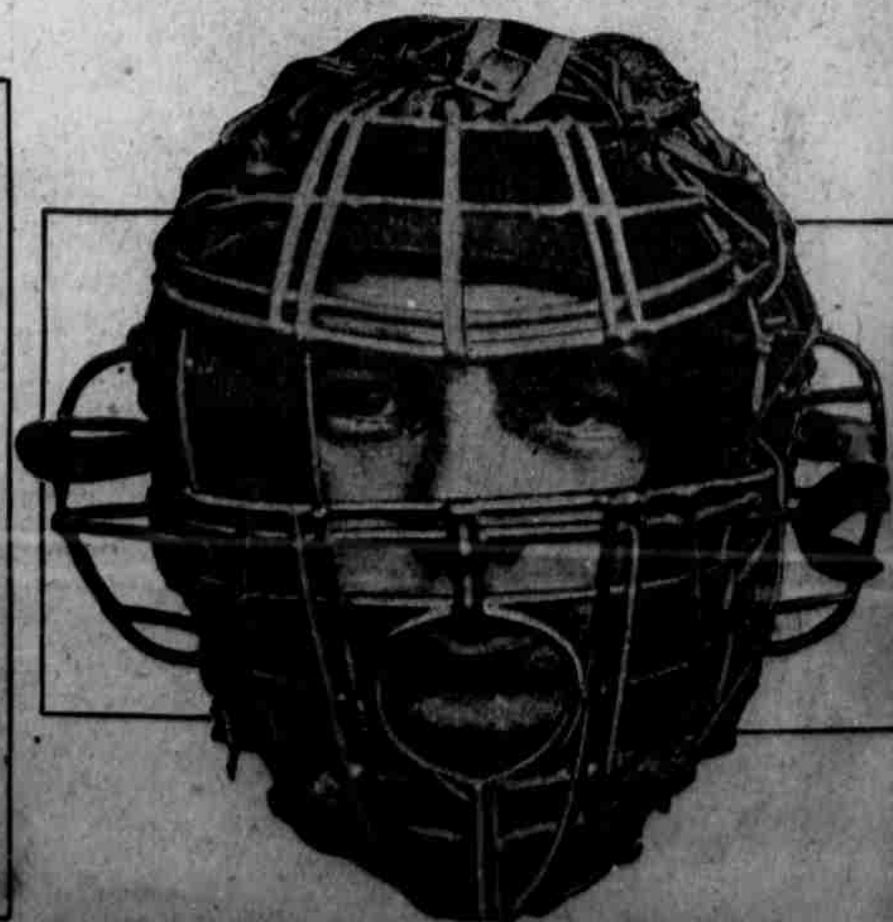

MISS MARGARET LADD, OF TEXAS, IS THE FIRST AMERICAN WHO HAS EVER APPEARED AS PREMIERE DANSEUSE AT THE OPERA COMIQUE, PARIS

YOUNG CRICKET STARS BATTLING FOR CHAMPIONSHIP AT ST. MARTIN'S
This is the Third Junior Cricket Team of the Philadelphia Cricket Club. It is now engaged in a death grip with the third junior team of the Manheim Cricket Club for the championship of the class.

SCHOOLBOY ATHLETES ARE ONLY A LITTLE BEHIND THEIR MORE ILLUSTRIOUS COLLEGE FIGSKIN CO-STAR
A quartet of Germantown Academy football candidates going through signal practice. From left to right are Williamson, Pensmore, Henson and Dippay.

NO, HE'S NOT A MAN-EATER BEHIND THE BARS; HE'S ONLY DOMINICK PICINICH, CONNIE MACK'S STAR YOUNG CATCHER AT WORK